

Human rights are being violated every day all around the world and many of those violations are driven by market's demand and supply rule. We build interaction and awareness between those two parallel realities. Mutual contact broadens mind of young people giving them knowledge of alternative reality.