

partner & sponsor info

A firm or organization can become a partner for an arch out loud competition simply by marketing arch out loud on their own platforms. arch out loud retains full rights to determining if an entity can be labeled as a partner. There is no monetary donation necessary for partnership.

To attain official sponsorship of a competition a firm or organization must donate an amount equivalent to the total award for the specific competition.

The following is a list of benefits for partners and sponsors:

PARTNER

- Name listed with other official partners on the website's partners page.
- Link to website on archoutloud.com

SPONSOR

- Personalized feature page on archoutloud.com describing the firm/organization and linking to your website.
- Special feature across all arch out loud media platforms.
- Logo placed on the front page of the respective competition brief.
- Logo placed on the respective competition page at archoutloud.com
- Logo placed on the award winner's certificates.
- Lifetime partner of arch out loud with logo permanently on the partners page.
- Credited as being an official sponsor on all press statements and media outlets. *

For further information and specific questions please contact info@archoutloud.com

*name publishing not guaranteed on every third party site. subject to site's standards.

